GSA Staff Favorites

- Daikaya – “Those pork miso onigiri are worth every calorie!”
- Eastern Market – “A great, not so touristy area to pick up gifts from local artisans.”
- “I love the Lincoln Memorial at night time because not only do you get to avoid the swarms of people, you can see the beautiful lights of the city. For anyone looking to propose, I would say that is one of the best places in DC.”

- Old Post Office Tower – “Short lines and the second tallest viewing point of downtown DC.”
- Botanical Garden— “Great indoor display including three story rainforest.”
- The National Portrait Gallery — “The best way to spend your lunch hour, dine in the atrium and check out the art!”
- E Street Cinema — “Very unique movies and right next door to Ford’s Theatre.”
- “The National Gallery of Art is the eighth most visited art museum in the world and contains the only painting by Leonardo da Vinci in the Americas. Admission is free.”
